

INVITATION TO COMMENT ON EFRAG'S ASSESSMENTS ON SUPPLIER FINANCE ARRANGEMENTS (AMENDMENTS TO IAS 7 AND IFRS 7)

Once filled in, this form should be submitted by 11 September 2023 using the 'Comment publication link' available at the bottom of the respective news item. All open consultations can be found on EFRAG's web site: Open consultations: express your views.

EFRAG has been asked by the European Commission to provide it with advice and supporting material on Supplier Finance Arrangements (Amendments to IAS 7 and IFRS 7) ('the Amendments'). To do so, EFRAG has been carrying out an assessment of the Amendments against the technical criteria for endorsement as set out in Regulation (EC) No 1606/2002. It has also been assessing the costs and benefits that would arise from their implementation in the European Union (the EU) and European Economic Area.

A summary of the Amendments is set out in Appendix 1 of the accompanying Draft Letter to the European Commission regarding the endorsement of the Amendments.

Before finalising its assessment, EFRAG would welcome your views on the issues set out below. Please note that all responses received will be placed on public record unless the respondent requests confidentiality. In the interest of transparency, EFRAG will discuss the responses it receives in a public meeting, so it is preferable that all responses can be published.

EFRAG's initial assessments, summarised in this questionnaire, will be updated for comments received from constituents when EFRAG is in the process of finalising its Letter to the European Commission regarding the endorsement of the Amendments.

EFRAG's initial assessment with respect to the technical criteria for endorsement

- 2 EFRAG's initial assessment of the Amendments is that they meet the technical criteria for endorsement. In other words, the Amendments are not contrary to the principle of true and fair view and meet the criteria of understandability, relevance, reliability, comparability and does not affect prudence. EFRAG's reasoning is set out in Appendix 2 of the accompanying Draft Letter to the European Commission regarding the endorsement of the Amendments.

- (a) Do you agree with this assessment?

Yes No

If you do not agree, please provide your arguments and what you believe the implications of this could be for EFRAG's endorsement advice.

- (b) Are there any issues that are not mentioned in Appendix 2 of the accompanying Draft Letter to the European Commission regarding endorsement of the Amendments that you believe EFRAG should consider in its technical evaluation of the Amendments? If there are, what are those issues and why do you believe they are relevant to the evaluation?

Please, refer to our answers to Questions 5 to 7.

The European public good

- 3 In its assessment of the impact of the Amendments on the European public good, EFRAG has considered a number of issues that are addressed in Appendix 3 of the accompanying Draft Letter to the European Commission regarding the endorsement of the Amendments.

Improvement in financial reporting

- 4 EFRAG has identified that in assessing whether the endorsement of the Amendments is conducive to the European public good it should consider whether the Amendments are an improvement over current requirements across the areas which have been subject to changes (see paragraphs 3 to 6 of Appendix 3 of the accompanying Draft Letter to the European Commission). To summarise, EFRAG's initial assessment is that the Amendments are likely to improve the quality of financial reporting.

Do you agree with the assessment?

Yes No

If you do not agree, please provide your arguments and indicate how this could affect EFRAG's endorsement advice.

Invitation to Comment on EFRAG's Initial Assessments

Costs and benefits

- 5 EFRAG is also assessing the costs that are likely to arise for preparers and for users on implementation of the Amendments in the EU, both in year one and in subsequent years. Some initial work on this has already been carried out, and the responses to this invitation to comment will be used to inform this assessment.

The results of the initial assessment of costs are set out in paragraphs 8 to 18 of Appendix 3 of the accompanying Draft Letter to the European Commission regarding the endorsement of the Amendments. To summarise, EFRAG's initial assessment is that initial and ongoing costs for preparers of the Amendments will, in general, be limited as the information required would in the majority of situations be available to an entity. An exception is the required information on the amount of liabilities that are part of supplier finance arrangements for which suppliers have already received payment from the finance providers. This information is currently not readily available in all circumstances. When this information is currently not readily available, preparers could incur some initial and/or ongoing costs in relation to collecting the information. EFRAG assesses that the transition requirements allowing an entity not to disclose this information until as of 31 December 2024 will provide entities with some time to amend contractual terms and conditions of their supplier finance arrangements. This could reduce the additional costs preparers would incur from the Amendments.

EFRAG assesses that there could also be costs for users of the Amendments. However, as users could decide not to take the new information required by the Amendments into account, users will only incur the costs if they consider the benefits of the information outweigh the costs.

Do you agree with this assessment?

Yes No

If you do not, please explain why you do not and (if possible) explain broadly what you believe the costs involved will be?

- 6 In addition, EFRAG is assessing the benefits that are likely to be derived from the Amendments. The results of the initial assessment of benefits are set out in paragraph 19 to 21 of Appendix 3 of the accompanying Draft Letter to the European Commission regarding the endorsement of the Amendments. To summarise, EFRAG's initial assessment is that the Amendments will result in information on supplier finance arrangements that can be very important for users of financial statements. The Amendments could also result in very limited benefits for preparers.

Do you agree with this assessment?

Yes No

If you do not agree with this assessment, please provide your arguments and indicate how this could affect EFRAG's endorsement advice.

We believe that the conclusion of the assessment may not be adequate in case of many entities. Especially in the case of the information on the amount of liabilities for which suppliers have already received payment from the finance providers. In our opinion, the possibility of that information being already available is remote. Additionally, we do not see what rational arguments support that it is the entity that carries out the reverse factoring that reports the accounts receivable for which the suppliers have decided to anticipate payment from the financial intermediary.

Supplier Finance Arrangements (Amendments to IAS 7 and IFRS 7)
Invitation to Comment on EFRAG's Initial Assessments

We have serious doubts that the amendments would be "very important for users of financial statements" as a whole. Instead, we believe that these amendments may be of some interest only to certain users of the financial statements.

- 7 EFRAG's initial assessment is that the benefits to be derived from implementing the Amendments in the EU, as described in paragraph 6 above, are likely to outweigh the costs involved, as described in paragraph 5 above.

Do you agree with this assessment?

Yes No

If you do not agree with this assessment, please provide your arguments and indicate how this could affect EFRAG's endorsement advice.

Taking into account our answer to Question 6, in our view the costs involved may outweigh the benefits for many companies, especially for those that do not obtain a deferment in the payment of their invoices as a result of this type of contracts.

Overall assessment with respect to the European public good

- 8 EFRAG has initially concluded that endorsement of the Amendments would be conducive to the European public good (see paragraphs 25 to 28 of Appendix 3 of the accompanying Draft Letter to the European Commission).

Do you agree with this conclusion?

Yes No

If you do not agree, please explain your reasons.
